These rocks will cry out

Who do you say Jesus is?

The gospel reading says that even if we don't praise God, the rocks would cry out.

How easy or hard are you finding it to talk about Jesus at the moment?

Pick a stone that represents where you are at and how you are feeling.

Hold it in your hand and ask God to bring someone to mind, who you can share Jesus with this week.

Mary Oliver Poem

Read through
“the Poet Thinks about the Donkey”

What’s a situation where you feel stuck or looking towards something that feels hard.

Quietly sit with God and ask God what the next step is.

Lectio station

Have a read of the story of Jesus entering Jerusalem in Luke 19:28-40 and Mark 11:1-11

Where are the places of encounter in the story, and what do you notice about them?

Leadership in the way of Jesus

Jesus comes as an unlikely king,
and an unlikely leader.

A leader who gave everyvthing for others,
the self emptying king.

What are the qualities of Jesus' leadership that you would like to see in others?

Choose a leader and pray for them

(Here are some examples for inspo, or pick your own!)

Visio Divina

As you look at these images of Jesus entering Jerusalem, let your eyes settle on one that catches your attention

What is Jesus doing? Who is he looking at?

Can you imagine yourself in the picture?

Ask God to show you why he wanted you to spend time with this picture today